

vision 2025

Self-Concept

SPIES is a family-run, medium-sized company. We are a reliable, innovative development and system partner. Industry 4.0 and digitalization are part of our DNA. Succession planning is considered for all key positions.

Products & Markets

The processing of plastics, including alternative plastics, is our core business. Our core market is all of Europe, our orientation is worldwide. In addition to IML packaging, we are developing new business areas. Through new technologies we save material. We recycle 100 % of our scrap.

Competitive position

In Europe we are the market leader for individual packaging solutions. There is no getting past us.

Competitive advantage

At SPIES the customer receives his individual product from one source. In cooperation with us, he secures his competitive advantage by minimizing risks and through fast time2market. We are service-oriented, on schedule, reliable, versatile and flexible.

Image

SPIES is a sustainable and innovative company. We pack passionately, reliably and customer-friendly. An intact environment is the basis of our actions. We handle our resources responsibly.

Advantages for our employees

Employees enjoy working for SPIES. We have a good company culture, which is lived by a WE-feeling. Our managers are well trained for their job. In an open error culture, we are open to the ideas of our employees. A SPIESer is open to new ideas, innovative, honest, reliable, motivated and appreciative. Fitness and health are important to us. Every employee has a secure, suitable, long-term and sustainable job that is rewarded in a goal-oriented and performance-related manner. Through qualifications we offer everyone a perspective. We have a knowledge and innovation management system.

Advantages for investors & suppliers & stakeholders

SPIES is a reliable partner. Trust and long-term relationships are the key to our growth. We trust in the golden handshake and our contracts are professionally legally structured.

Environment

We feel deeply rooted in the region. We think and act sustainably and take responsibility for our environment. As an important company in the region, we support regional projects. SPIES acts in accordance with the law and values at all times.

Network

We are the first contact for talent. Our good network enriches us.